

Windows: Seeing the World Around us

Wows (Positive Aspects):

What aspects of intrigued you the most? Why?

What positive values or teachings from could you apply in your own life?

Can you share a moment where you discovered a beautiful or inspiring idea within our learning from today?

How did learning about expand your horizons and open your mind to new possibilities?

What new insights did you gain about?

How did exploring influence your understanding?

Can you share a specific detail or idea from that you found particularly interesting or eye-opening?

Ows (Challenges or Areas of Growth):

Were there any concepts within that you found difficult to understand or accept? What were your initial thoughts and feelings?

Reflect on a particular moment where you encountered a challenging or thought-provoking idea. How did it influence your perspective?

How might your own beliefs and assumptions have shaped your reactions to certain aspects of?

What could you do to further explore and better understand the aspects of that initially posed challenges for you?

Mirrors: Reflecting for Ourselves

What is my view on this?

How do I feel about it?

What can I learn from others about this?

How does my worldview affect my opinion about this?

Were there any similarities or differences with your own beliefs? How did this connection make you feel?

How does learning about help you appreciate your own faith or beliefs?

Can you think of a personal experience or belief that aligns with what we have learnt today?

Doors: Stepping into Others Shoes and Responding Locally Nationally and Globally

Describe how learning about.... has helped you better understand the viewpoint of....?

How has your learning encouraged empathy and a deeper appreciation for diversity?

In what ways can our learning from today contribute to promoting understanding and harmony in our broader community?

How can your learning from today impact the wider world?

How can understanding help us become advocates for social justice and equality?

Can you think of ways in which might influence actions for positive change in society?

What connections can you draw between and real-world instances of promoting inclusivity and addressing discrimination?

In what ways can our learning on be applied to global challenges such as environmental conservation, poverty, or conflict resolution?

How can the insights gained from inspire you to take actions that promote unity and social justice in your community?